TEAM SASKATCHEWAN UPDATE

February 2006

Team Saskatchewan Badminton

Chef de Mission Message

The games are coming fast and as we move forward, more sports are having either camps or final selection try outs for Team Saskatchewan. I must admit the I was very impressed with the organized final selection of Badminton. Seeing this, I want to incorporate this process throughout the other sports. Badminton is charging $500 that will cover the $400 for Team Saskatchewan and $100 for the uniforms and such for that sport. What I want to see is each sport coordinator manage all of this through each sport and not through the Team Saskatchewan office. Once collected, Badminton will forward a check for the final team's $400 per athlete to the Team Saskatchewan office. Clean and simple. So Sport Coordinators start planning for this change. We will be having monthly meetings of Team Saskatchewan and as we get closer, I will be harsher on the Sports that are not being committed. Remember there are other people waiting to assist if you are unable to commit to the responsibilities of a sport coordinator. The only reason that I may become harsh is our motto, "Commitment to Excellence." Keep working hard and see you next month.

TEAM SASKATCHEWAN UPDATE - February 2006

Excellence Update

All Phase 1 reports are in. WAY TO GO!! There is still some Phase 2 reports that need to be submitted for the release of funding for your sport. Contact me for a formal meeting today to complete this task. Ensure that you work with your PSGB for updated program information.

Coaches will be key points of communication for the sports. As coaches, strive to be the best in developing and preparation of the athletes leading up to the games. Sport Coordinators and Coaches will be responsible for registration of all athletes in their respective sport.

March will see the formal evaluation of the Aboriginal Excellence Program for our province. We will be asking for your input along this journey. Stay tuned for updated information.
